Walk with the wise and become wise, for a companion of fools suffers harm.- Proverbs 13:20

Harvest Greetings South Zumbro,

Last week, the cornfield around our farm was harvested. The sounds and smells of the gathering brings me such joy. The hum of the combine in the distance, the warbling of the tractor accompanying it and the sibilance of the grain pouring into the wagon. Witnessing the harvest is a true blessing and has many symbolic meanings for our life.

Something else you might see in a cornfield is the evidence of the yield. Oftentimes, there will be corn kernels left behind for the birds, deer and other beings of God's creation to enjoy. Us, being one of them! To my fortune, a pile of corn was left behind that had escaped the clutches of the grain wagon. Like a good farmer, I sent my son to the field to gather the corn so we could use it to feed our chickens. After scooping it up, we poured it into plastic bins in our chicken coop. To my chagrin, I realized that the corn was still quite wet. I hadn't thought of that. I imagine that this corn will not last long before beginning to spoil.

You see, most of you know the importance of the drying period for grain. You can't just store it without it being brought to a certain moisture. In my case, this corn is really wet. In fact, it may have gotten rained on while waiting for our collection. I best feed it quickly, or it will begin to mold and will be of no use after too long. What does this have to do with our faith? What might I glean from this story?

In Proverbs 13:20, the writer explains that surrounding ourselves with fools might cause harm. How? Because who we surround ourselves with is a critical, social understanding that we usually partake in and/or become that which we are consumed with. If we surround ourselves with unbelievers and engage in immoral activities, we lose touch with our relationship with Jesus. Similarly, in 1 Corinthians 5:6 says "...a little yeast leavens the whole batch of dough". Spoilage in our relationship with Jesus and others can certainly take place if we aren't careful. I will try to quickly use the corn that Rowan gathered for me. Hopefully it will be fine and it won't spoil. That is something we can't do in our relationships... "hope" that everything will be fine. This does not mean you must exclude all people from your life that have poor moral values, but we should guard our hearts and minds in Christ Jesus and be used by Him to bring goodness and love into our relationships.

As you "walk with the wise", I pray that you look for opportunities to minister to those that need to be "gathered" and introduced to the saving grace of Jesus.

Love you always,

Pastor Pete

Dear South Zumbro,
Thank you for your loving prayers to our Holy Heavenly Father as we enter this “new journey”. Our hearts are comforted and encouraged knowing your arms of love by prayer hold us. It’s really a blessing to feel your love. And I/we confidently say, “Praise God always and in all things praise God. He is totally and completely trustworthy and loving—worthy of ALL our praise and love.”

In His love,

South Zumbro Lutheran Church family,
Thank you so very much for your generous donation of $531 to our Faith in Action organization. We are truly grateful for your generosity to our community. We are blessed. Donations such as yours make it possible for our organization to continue our volunteers to help serve the seniors in Dodge County to stay in their own homes longer.

Again, “thank you”!
Faith in Action Secretary, Diane

Dear South Zumbro church family!
How can we begin to thank you for the way you’ve prayed and loved us through the last couple years, and especially the last few weeks as we now have laid Mama to rest. Oh how she loved you all as we do!! The food brought in, the prayers, the calls, the visits and kind words are so appreciated. For all that helped and worked in the kitchen, parked cars, ushered, thank you. To Sandy for playing those beautiful hymns, for Pastors Peter and Jeff, words cannot express our gratitude. Mama is smiling and loving being whole again, and being with Jesus, and her “sweetie”, Davis!!! We love you South Zumbro!!

Thanks Pastor Pete for your visit and Holy Communion and to the South Zumbro WOW for the hot dishes. We love and appreciate everyone at South Zumbro. Please continue your prayers for Rick, Sally and our family as we continue on this day to day journey. We feel your love and we know our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ hears every prayer. We are so grateful for each of you.

Friends of South Zumbro Lutheran Church,
Thank you for your recent gift of $650 to Camp Victory. Your support helps keep this ministry going. This summer we served over 1800 campers and staff from June to August. I had a counselor tell me that not only did she have an incredible experience working at camp, but her stepsister who came on a scholarship found “the people at camp to be real. They really love Jesus.” She said she wants to find a church where she can continue learning about God. Thank you for helping us in our ministry.

Plow Day

On Saturday, October 28 at 9 am, we will host a "Plow Day" right here at church in the field east of the cemetery. If you have a tractor and/or plow, please join us. If you don't have one, come anyway! There will be coffee, treats, and good fellowship. Please spread the word!

Ladies, it's never too early to mark your calendar for a very special event! South Zumbro WOW will hold its 11th annual Advent by Candlelight on Sunday evening, December 3rd, at 4:30 p.m. There is no charge for this event, but a free will offering will be taken with all money going to a local charity. This is an evening filled with beautiful music, the Word, and wonderful fellowship as we prepare our hearts for the Advent season. All women of South Zumbro Lutheran are invited to attend. Reservations (sign-ups) will begin the last Sunday in October. Volunteers are again needed for ladies to host a table for 6 to 8 ladies, provide a holiday centerpiece, table setting and a dessert. You may partner with another lady to host a table. It is lots of fun and only requires a few hours of your time. Information sheets are available or for more info call Paula Carlson, 507-254-9176, or carlson.paulaj@gmail.com. Other volunteers will be needed and announcements will be made in the coming weeks with more information. Please, mark your calendars now.

On Saturday, October 28, at 9:30 am, South Zumbro Sunday School will be hosting a "Trunk or Treat" event in the parking lot at church. Anyone from church is invited to decorate your trunk or vehicle and share a short story, magic trick, treat, etc. All children are invited to dress up and attend. The "Plow Day" begins at 9 am, so come early to see the tractors/plows and stay for the trunk or treat event!

  - Committee asked Matt Clock for an estimate for home removal and the committee will report back to the council.

New Business:

- Memorial Committee: scholarships
  - There have been seminary funds donated and set aside in an account. There are legal implications to work through and the committee is asking for a small group to be formed and discuss the distribution of these funds. Would like the small group to prepare a presentation that they can present to the congregation at the annual meeting.
- Worship Space Committee:
  - Looking at short- term and long- term worship goals at South Zumbro.
  - Overflow of congregation in the fellowship hall- the committee will put chairs in a row with bibles and hymnals. Suggested trying communion in the fellowship hall as well. Service group leaders will need to have greeters for the sanctuary and the fellowship hall. Discussed having a “worship” leader to organize songs and lead songs in the fellowship hall. This committee is working on updating and creating more kids activity bags for families to use. At this time the fellowship hall changes are a short term fix and there has been a lot of discussion about long term worship change at South Zumbro.

Meeting Adjourned- M/S/A

We closed with the Lord’s Prayer.

Respectfully submitted

Check Your Meds Day

I think we've all been sick enough to take a prescription medication. Have you ever had strep throat? Needed surgery for a broken bone? Had a sinus infection? It makes me thankful that we live in this day and age with antibiotics, antivirals and many other medications. Nation "Check Your Meds Day" is October 21. It is sponsored by the National Community Pharmacists Association. It prompts us to bring our medications to our local pharmacist for review. Pharmacists can remove any prescriptions that have expired, update prescriptions as necessary and answer any questions we may have. If nothing else, it's a rare chance for us to get free medical advice.

Historically there has always been a distinction between those who directly work with ill patients and those who create pharmaceutical remedies. Pharmacists originally went by the title of "Apothecaries". In ancient Egypt the medical profession was split into two classes - the ones who visited the sick and those who prepared antidotes. I wonder if Doctor Luke visited the sick with Jesus? Matthew 4:23 and Matthew 9:35, "Jesus went about all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, preaching the gospel of the Kingdom and healing all kinds of sicknesses and all kinds of disease among the people." Luke himself says, "When the sun was setting, all those who had any that were sick with various diseases brought them to Him; and He laid His hands on everyone of them and healed them." (Luke 4:40)

After WWI and II there were big pharmaceutical discoveries with new and highly effective medications. Pharmacists were no longer the makers of the remedies but were still knowledgeable in all medicines prescribed to patients. In 1951 a law mandated that all drugs be defined as prescription or "Over the Counter" (OTC).

Today pharmacists have a more hands-on role consulting with patients in the hospital, offering advice, medical directions and correct dosage instructions.

Individuals who take prescription medications should take the opportunity on Saturday, October 21, 2023 (or any day this month!) to get their medications checked, develop a closer relationship with our local pharmacists and become better educated about the drugs we are taking.

Do we know: the 5 rights? The right person? Right medication? Right dosage? Right route? Right time? Safety comes first.

- The Name of my prescribed medication (or the generic equivalent)?
- What the medication does? (not "the yellow one is my water pill")
- How it affects me specifically? Do I have any side effects?
- Am I taking it correctly? Full stomach or empty stomach? Is the timing correctly coordinated with my other medications? Is it once, twice, three times a day?
- Is there a more cost effective alternative to what is being prescribed?
- Are all my medications safe to take together?

Often when I sent a patient out of the ICU, I sent them with a table of their medications with a daily chart.

But what if I don't take any medications?! Perhaps we may have a spouse or children, a parent or grandparent who does. We can take the opportunity on October 21, 2023, to round up friends or family, especially those with elderly family members who rely on prescriptions - we can be the hands and feet of Jesus in our community, giving someone a ride to the local pharmacist. They will be reassured about their prescriptions (often a source of anxiety) and be more confident. Thank you for showing your faith in action.

Your faith community nurse,
Cindy Bernardts

Many churches observe October as Pastor Appreciation Month. Given the reluctance of many pastors to call attention to themselves, it's not likely that they will mention anything about being appreciated.

Were someone to ask a pastor, however, what might be done to show appreciation to him or her, the answer would likely be, "Pray for me."

St. Paul never asked for anything for himself except that others pray for him. To the church at Rome, he wrote, "I appeal to you, brothers and sisters, by our Lord Jesus Christ and by the love of the Spirit, to join me in earnest prayer to God on my behalf, that I may be rescued from the unbelievers in Judea, and that my ministry to Jerusalem may be acceptable to the saints, so that by God's will I may come to you with joy and be refreshed in your company" (Romans 15:30-32, NRSV).

Encourage your pastor by assuring him or her of your prayers and love.

Once again South Zumbro will take part in collecting items to place in shoeboxes to be sent to children around the world. The mission of Operation Christmas Child is to demonstrate God's love in a tangible way to needy children around the world, and together with the local church worldwide, to share the Good News of Jesus Christ. We will be collecting items until Sunday, November 12. That day our Junior League (5th – 7th graders) will pack the shoeboxes following worship.

GIFT IDEAS

TOYS: small cars, balls, dolls, stuffed animals, kazoos, harmonicas, yo-yos, jump ropes, small etch-a-sketch, toys that light up or make noise (with extra batteries), slinky, etc.
